

LETTERS FROM TWO STATES

New London County

NIANTIC

Ivan Coulter Transferred from Norwich to Hartford—Willey Cottage Leased.

Miss Katie and Jennie Willey, who have been passing a few days at their cottage in the Pines, left Monday for their home in Norwich.

Mrs. B. E. Eaton of Wampanoag and Mrs. Charles Miner of Lyme were recent guests of Mrs. J. Percy Morgan.

Charles Spencer left Tuesday for a business trip to East Haven.

Mrs. Philip Maynard, who sprained her ankle a few days ago, is improving slowly.

Miss Isabelle Weddell, who is in one of the stores in Hartford, passed the holiday in the village.

Mrs. J. P. Thompson is passing the summer with Mrs. Hubert in the Salem.

Mrs. Lucy Gleason, who has been ill, is able to be out.

Miss Helen Maynard is visiting relatives in Lyme.

Capt. E. B. Norton is making improvements to his house in Main street.

Francis Deane, who has been attending the N. P. in Norwich, is employed in Hill's store.

Leland Chesebrough of Mystic has entered the employ of the Arnold Road store in Main street.

Transferred from Norwich.

Ivan Coulter is with Swift & company at their Hartford branch, having been transferred from the Norwich office.

Mrs. Addie Cane of Hartford is at the Merriam cottage.

Mrs. R. L. Manwaring, who has been ill for some time, is improving slowly.

Laurel Willey Cottage.

Mrs. Ella Dewey of Norwich has taken the Willey cottage in the Pines for two weeks.

Mrs. Seng of Worcester is the guest of her mother, Mrs. E. B. Washburn, at the Finch cottage.

The J. O. Manwaring house, occupied by Harry Clark and family, is reported sold to out of town purchasers.

The two-tenement house occupied by the Haynes and Slocum families in Smith avenue is reported sold to New London parties.

Former Assistant Postmaster Marcus D. Bush returned Tuesday evening from a visit to relatives in Cromwell.

H. P. Bullard has returned from the Waterbury Masonic meeting.

Miss Josephine Kingsbury was a caller in the Pines Wednesday.

Walter Christie of New London is at Saunders grove.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ray, who came here a few months ago from Stamford, are seeking a tenement in Niantic, as they are expecting to reside here.

James E. Hurle spent the week end in Norwich on business.

Dr. and Mrs. Paul Augustus Kumpitch and child left Wednesday for their home in Bridgeport after a lengthy stay at their cottage in the grove.

Mrs. W. J. Manwaring of New Haven is occupying her cottage in the Pines.

LAUREL GLEN

Dr. Stanley Main and Irving Hopkins were callers at W. L. Main's last Friday.

Harold Fuller of New York has come to spend his vacation with Mr. and Mrs. Puttner.

Mr. and Mrs. William Thompson and mother, Mrs. Cynthia Watson were guests of Mrs. James Palmer Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Rusch have moved to "The Beautiful Sunset" farm.

George Hill who is employer at the state hospital was at his home on Saturday.

Emanuel Kallis has been at his place for a few days.

Dr. Hale and family of Springfield, Mass., opened their cottage Thursday for the summer.

Mrs. Nathan Main attended a picnic at George Eccleston's last Monday.

Myron S. Holdridge and son, Russell, of Worcester, Mass., and Mr. and Mrs. Emon H. Palmer are Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Eccleston of Providence, spent Sunday and Monday with Mrs. Lydia Holdridge.

Mr. Lathrop and son, Asa, and Charles Wheeler were in Hartford last week.

Mrs. Howard Martin and children are spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. Nathan Main.

Attorney Main and family have gone to Narragansett Pier for the summer.

CHESTERFIELD

New York people are arriving at the boarding houses in large numbers nowadays.

Mrs. Ida Solomon and children from Norwich are visiting Mr. and Mrs. John Kaplan.

Miss Edna Walden is visiting friends in Salem.

Many came here to spend the Fourth with friends and relatives.

Messrs. Benson Goldstein and Charlie White are visiting relatives here during their vacation.

Abraham Miller has let his new house which he has rebuilt recently to New York parties.

Roy Brainard spent the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Smith.

George Coleman of Foxboro is visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Powers during this week.

A crowd from this place attended the dance at Gardner Lake Monday afternoon and evening.

Miss Lila Powers has returned after visiting Ellsworth and Eikel Powers of Lake's Pond.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tinker spent Sunday and Monday with Mr. and Mrs. Matt Tinker.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Fox of Stamford were callers on local friends the first of the week.

CAMPBELL'S MILLS

Mrs. Thomas Brown was thrown from a carriage on what is known as the new road, between Ekunk and Moosup, Wednesday, and was severely bruised.

Byron Dawley, captain of a life saving station on the east coast of Florida, is visiting his father, William H. Dawley, and other relatives and friends in this vicinity.

Frank May and Miss Edith Sanborn were married Tuesday by Rev. W. J. Reynolds at the Ekunk parsonage.

William H. Dawley, Jr., transacted business at Brewster's Neck Wednesday.

Mrs. Walter C. Tanner, Miss Margaret and Miss Olin Tanner took an automobile trip to Norwich Wednesday.

Silas L. and C. H. Barber visited Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Colburn at Ekunk Monday.

SHUNOC

Patriotic Service—Hay Crops Light—Mrs. Miller, 90, Recovering.

Rev. Albert L. Townsend delivered an eloquent sermon Sunday morning in the Third North Stonington Baptist church. The address was largely of a patriotic character. Communion service followed the preaching service, and Rev. Lucian Drury, pastor emeritus of the church, officiated. Mrs. Grace Snyder-Maine was at the organ.

Miss Hannah Merrill was the guest of Mrs. E. C. Colburn at Ekunk Monday.

of her sister, Mrs. F. Mason Partello at the village Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Randall entertained Sunday a number of guests from Groton and East Lyme.

Mrs. Mary A. Bayard, Daniel York and son, Albert, of Hartford, are the guests of Mrs. York's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John L. York.

Farmers are busy with their haying. The crop is much smaller than last year owing to the long spell of dry weather.

Mrs. Mary A. Miller is improving slowly in health. She is the oldest resident here with the exception of Thomas Shinn, the well known Mexican War veteran. The former has recently passed her 90th birthday.

Beautiful Flowers.

One of the most beautiful flower gardens, locally, is that of Mrs. C. E. Edw. at the trolley station in North Stonington village. Passersby stop and gaze with admiration at the lovely roses now in full bloom.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. James visited on Sunday and Monday with William F. Blitgood and family at Pachaug, Griswold.

SALEM

Decorated and Renovated Congregational Church Opened For Services—Death of Frances Tillotson.

Although the repairs on the Congregational church are not quite completed, the house was open for worship last Sunday. The pastor, Rev. R. H. Crawford, occupied the pulpit in the morning and the Christian Endeavor service in the evening was in charge of Mr. Gooby of New Britain.

George Goldie and Miss Harriet Williams, also Mr. and Mrs. William Goldie of New London were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Williams.

Mrs. Ruth Steery has returned after two weeks' visit with her sister, Miss Ivesh Steery at the Mohican hotel in New London.

Mrs. Henry A. Rogers has returned after spending several days at the home of her sister, Mrs. Mary Sisson at North Lyme.

Returns From Norwich.

Miss Susan Miner has returned from a week's visit at the home of her uncle, Wellington Miner in Norwich.

Miss Minnie Kingsley has returned after spending several weeks at the home of her brother, Walter Kingsley in Chaplinville.

Miss Ivesh Steery of New London spent Sunday and the holiday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Hunt Steery.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Crawford and son, Russell Crawford, of New Britain, were guests over Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. N. Hunt Steery.

Miss Ella Fox of Kansas City is spending some time at the Fox homestead.

Death of Frances Tillotson.

Frances Tillotson died at the home of Frank Williams Wednesday morning at 7 o'clock. She has been ill for about three months.

The serious condition of F. R. Bailey who is ill with typhoid fever shows a slight improvement.

GLASGO

Postponed Picnic Held Tuesday—Oscar Miner Suffers Paralytic Stroke.

The thread mill resumed work Tuesday morning after the closing Saturday afternoon of the holiday.

Several automobile parties from the village went to Rocky Point for the day.

The Bethel Sunday school picnic was postponed to Tuesday on account of the storm. The day was pleasantly spent, with a fair sized crowd. Sandwiches, cake, lemonade, and peanuts were served the company.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Luther, Mr. and Mrs. William Richmond and little daughter, Elizabeth, spent Sunday at Ocean Beach, making the trip in Mr. Luther's automobile.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron P. Young, with their three little boys, spent the Fourth at W. G. Burdick's, also Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Thorpe of Westerly.

Miss Mabel Blanchard spent the week end with Mrs. Myra Stewart at Stewart Hill.

Miss Sarah Cameron is visiting friends in Westerly for several weeks.

Entertained 15.

Mrs. Luther entertained 15 at the Ladies Aid society meeting held at her home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Green took an automobile trip to Providence Sunday and were guests of Mrs. Green's brother.

One-Side Helpless.

Oscar Miner is suffering from paralysis, one side being entirely helpless, as he was returning home from a neighbor's he fell to the ground and was unable to get home without help.

Mr. and Mrs. William Richmond and daughter of Springfield, Mass., are spending a week at the home of Mrs. Richmond's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Luther.

Miss Laura Young is at home for the summer vacation.

Fred Chapman and family were guests of Mrs. Chapman's mother, Mrs. Charles Kinney, over the Fourth. Mrs. Kinney is also entertaining Misses McDonald and Phillips from New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Rhodes Lewis have returned home from visiting their son, John Lewis, and wife, who live in New Haven.

ROAD SOCIETY

Miss Mamie Dean has returned to her home at Old Mystic after spending the week at Maple Lawn.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Stanton Gates have been guests of relatives here for the past week.

G. W. Wheelon, Jr., spent the Fourth at his aunt's, Mrs. Frank Lathrop, of Norwich.

Mrs. Francis Noyes and daughter, Miss Louise, have arrived at Stonington for the summer.

Charles S. Noyes was in Norwich on Thursday.

Miss Geneva Rathbun attended the noonday reunion held at New London.

A number of the ladies of Quilam-baug attended a picnic going by automobile to Griswold where they were the guests of Miss Lester.

Mrs. Thomas W. Palmer has been entertaining Mrs. Little Lester of New York, and Miss Alice Demott, who will remain for some time.

John Palmer has left for California.

Miss Annie McDonald of Providence was at Mrs. E. P. Noyes Sunday.

A young man was badly injured by falling from his motorcycle, near the church, Sunday. He was carried to the Lawrence hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Palmer entertained a number of relatives over the Fourth.

Mrs. Seth N. Williams and Mrs. Grace D. Wheeler are guests of Mrs. Henry Taintor and daughter, Miss Frances, at luncheon at the old man inn today.

HANOVER

Rev. Charles H. Peck of Marshfield, Mass., will occupy the pulpit in the Congregational church Sunday, July 11.

Miss Helen Eadie and Miss Gertrude Eadie left Thursday morning for Albion.

camp, Northfield, Mass., where they will attend the summer school for women's foreign missionary societies.

There will be no meeting of the Junior O. E. society Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Croft and daughter of New York are visiting Mr. Croft's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Croft, at their home.

Arthur Croft of Fort Wright was home over the Fourth.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark and children of Hartford are visiting at Mrs. Clark's father's, Charles Perry's.

VOLUNTOWN

Entertainment for St. Thomas Church—Prize for Norwich Young Woman—Ball Team Organized—Motor Outing.

Saturday evening an entertainment and social was held in Union hall for the benefit of St. Thomas church. A large crowd was present and the thoroughly enjoyed the dancing which was the feature of the program and for which Richards' orchestra furnished music. The prizes were won by Miss Alpha Gaudette and Wilfred Marchessault. In the ladies' contest in the sale of tickets, Miss Eva Gaudette was awarded first prize, a diamond ring; Miss Henrietta Steinkamp of Norwich second prize, a French cut glass water set, and Miss Emma Hammett of Glasgow third prize, a gold piece.

Holiday Observance.

The national holiday was noted in town by a generous display of Old Glory. The day was ushered in shortly after midnight with the ringing of bells and the noise of guns and revolvers, and the noise was kept up through the day. At intervals Amos Phillips' drum corps, and the band given by Messrs. Mahoney and Seymour. Irish flags, by Frank Richards proved an entertaining feature.

Elmer Teft, Jr., has succeeded Henry Brovillard as chauffeur for Fred Crandall.

Gave a Tea.

The Ladies Aid society of the Quaker Hill church gave a tea in the church parlors Wednesday afternoon. In place of the usual sewing meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Coman of Pequot entertained Mr. and Mrs. Osborn and child, and Mrs. Young of Providence over the holiday.

Maurice Frieburg, who is employed in New York, spent a few days at the home of relatives in town.

Camping at Pond.

Among the many campers at Beach pond are members of the Dupont families, who are entertaining relatives this week. They are occupying the cottage of A. T. Briggs.

Mrs. Louis H. Ritchotte and sister, Miss Eva Rice, are guests at the home of their sister, Mrs. Ollinn Magrey, at Milbury, Conn.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Boucher and Mr. and Mrs. Ollinn Boucher spent the holidays in camp at Beach pond.

Misses Mary and Nellie Ford of New Haven were holiday guests of their cousin, Rev. R. P. Morrissey, at the rectory.

Mr. and Mrs. William Burns of Yantic spent the holidays at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Macomber.

Miss Lizzie Murphy spent Wednesday at her home in Norwich.

Miss Rhea Gubelst of Turner's Falls, Mass., is spending her vacation at the home of her sister, Mrs. William Ritchotte.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Bontelle of Hope Valley, R. I., were holiday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Malone.

Motored to New Hampshire.

Edmond Herbert and Louis Joseph and Howell, John Herbert and E. E. Clarke enjoyed an automobile trip on Sunday to Greenville, N. H., to visit the former home of their family and call on friends and neighbors of years ago. Stops were made at Webster and Worcester, Mass., to call on friends and relatives.

Clinton, Mass., where the Boston waterworks were visited. The return trip was made Monday by way of Springfield, Mass., where a stop was made at Winchendon to call on relatives and a trip through the Berkshires was enjoyed. The party arrived home Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hassler and Mr. and Mrs. George W. Wilson of Plainfield were guests of relatives during the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Bray returned home from their wedding tour on Monday.

Stephen B. Sweet is visiting Lebanon relatives.

Miss Victoria Desorier of Plainfield was a recent visitor with relatives and friends in town.

Mr. and Mrs. George T. Phillips and daughter, Miss Minnie Miner and Gerald Welch of New Haven were holiday guests at the homes of relatives and friends. The trip was made in Mr. Phillips' automobile.

UNCASVILLE

Officers Elected By Thames Lodge—Summer Schedule of Masses—Celebration Supper.

Thames lodge, L. O. O. F., held its annual election and its last regular meeting, which resulted as follows: Noble grand, Frederick C. Hubert; vice grand, Harry L. Egan; recording secretary, Robert Eaton; C. Everett Chapman; trustee Edwin S. Henry. The installation ceremonies will be held July 19, with assistance from out of town lodges.

Miss Alexander Entertained.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Alexander, their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Alexander, entertained Wednesday evening. Those present were Miss Frances Edwards, Miss Olive Woods of New London, Miss Alice Alexander, John Stewart, George McMaher of New London, Charles Vallet of Philadelphia, Pa. The evening was devoted to music, dancing and games. During the evening refreshments were served by Miss Alexander.

An automobile trip to Willimantic was enjoyed by Joseph Hickey, Henry Brovillard, Arthur Plouf, Edward Geary Tuesday night.

Leave For Camp.

The Boy Scouts of the Baptist church left Tuesday morning for a week's camping out at Gardner's Lake. Palmer Bros' auto truck took up their campers.

Edmond Killean, who has been employed in Providence is working in New London.

Mrs. Marie Walden of Jamaica Plain, Mass., who with her mother are spending the summer with Mrs. Ida Browning, left town to spend a few days over the holiday with her aunt, Mrs. Charles L. Douglas of New York.

Mr. and Mrs. John Noyes entertained Robert Wickes of Westerly over the week-end.

Miss Rose Hale of Northbridge, Mass., who has been the guest of relatives in town has returned home.

Kitchen Dance.

A kitchen dance, given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph LaCrosse, Saturday evening, was enjoyed by many. Mrs. Ida Marcoux, who has been entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Bonville of Pequot, has returned to Willimantic.

Plan Water Carnival.

Miss Laura B. Woodworth entertained the members of the Good Church Sunshine society at her home Saturday afternoon. Plans were made for a bazaar and supper, also a water carnival.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Burgess and daughter, Miss Vera Burgess, spent her holiday with Killingly relatives.

Reuben Austin and a party composed

Miss Ethel Wood, went to Providence in Mr. Austin's automobile. While in Providence they were guests of Mrs. Rosenlund's sister, Mrs. Victor Peterson.

Miss Grace Strong, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Wilson for a week, has returned to Hartford.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Church entered a family party at their home on Gay Hill Monday.

Masses at 8 and 10 o'clock.

At St. John's Roman Catholic church the masses have been changed during the summer to one hour earlier. First mass will be at 8 o'clock and the second at 10 o'clock.

In a ball game between the first and second teams of the Montville Athletic club, the first team defeated the second team 3-1.

At St. John's for first team was Killen and Delaney; for second team Nicholas and Tuckey. Fred Derwin acted as umpire.

Harold Rosenlund, employed by New Haven, was in town for the week-end and holiday, the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Rosenlund.

Miss Bridget Kelley accompanied by Misses Helen Lemmon and Addie Allen have been spending a few days in New York.

Teft was the week-end visitor at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Teft, in Massachusetts.

Served at Supper.

The holiday celebration and supper given by the Athletic club, was well attended; about seventy were present.

Directed by the club's orchestra which is composed of Clarence McCardle, Joseph Hickey, George Jordan, Edwin Curtis and James Daniels. An exhibition of egypt dancing was given by Messrs. Mahoney and Seymour. Irish flags, by Frank Richards proved an entertaining feature.

Elmer Teft, Jr., has succeeded Henry Brovillard as chauffeur for Fred Crandall.

Gave a Tea.

The Ladies Aid society of the Quaker Hill church gave a tea in the church parlors Wednesday afternoon. In place of the usual sewing meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Coman of Pequot entertained Mr. and Mrs. Osborn and child, and Mrs. Young of Providence over the holiday.

Maurice Frieburg, who is employed in New York, spent a few days at the home of relatives in town.

GARDNER LAKE

Clifton Hopkins is spending a few days in Gardner Lake.

The Baptist church held a picnic on the church lawn last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Governor Brown of North Stonington spent several days last week with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gardner.

Mrs. May Daniels and Adolbert Winchendon have been in town.

Manley De La Hooke is ill with heart trouble.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Morgan and grandchild, Miss Mary W. Morgan, and Miss Doris Gardner, motored to Lyme with Harris Morgan.

Miss Ruby Fuller of South Coventry is here engaged to teach in the Sixth district.

Messrs. A. H. Shurtz, D. S. Marsh, Ira Comstock and Roy Goddard of New London were typists at the Lake house over the Fourth.

Earl Sargent of Norwich landed a 3-1-2 pound bass Wednesday.

Messrs. Carol Spaulding and Everett Pierce of Norwich spent July Fourth with friends at Spring grove.

MOHEGAN

There was a good attendance at the baked bean supper entertainment last Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Strickland and children of New London are visiting Mr. Strickland's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Quideiron.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Fielding of New London were visitors in Mohegan Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Mason of New London called on friends in this place.

Mrs. Meech, who is at the Backus hospital, is improving slowly.